Re: Mr. Thomas Simon

To whom it may concern,

Duende Pictures is a New York-based production company founded in 1989 by Jordi Torrent. We have produced numerous feature films, documentaries, and television programs.

Jordi Torrent's feature film East on the Compass, premiered at the 2005 Sitges International Film Festival and was selected for the New York 2006 Film Society of Lincoln Center's program Another Spanish Cinema: Film in Catalunya, 1906-2006.

Since 1989, Duende Pictures and its associates have provided production services support for feature film and film projects such as: My Life without Me, Things I Forgot to Remember, Domain of the Senses, El Deseo, and Ivorsí.

In addition, we have line produced numerous television programs for a variety of companies including: Ficciones del Sur, La Zamfona, Imatco, Tacsá, and OvideoTV.

Duende Pictures also produced television commercials and audio-visual programs for clients such as: Iberia Airlines, Chase Bank, Pepsi-Cola, AXA, British Telecom, Telefonica, Campofrio, Tiger, and Amena.

Duende Pictures has provided audio-visual production support for UN-Alliance of Civilizations, as well.

Since 1990, Duende Pictures has conducted Media Literacy workshops in New York City's public schools as well as at programs of the New York City Mission Society and the Children's Aid Society.

We hired Thomas Simon as a professional cameraman to document the discussion panels of our conferences in a number of times. He has performed his job in a very professional manner and I highly recommend his work.

Please feel free to contact me at the above address if you need further information.

Best regards,

Jordi Torrent
